- Duplicates both DVD and CD.
- Uses TEAC optical drives – Only company that uses its drives in its duplicators!
- High-performance and high-speed duplication systems.
- No software or PC connection is required.
- User-friendly LCD display menu.
- Multiple sub-functions for maximum system capabilities.
- Intelligent auto-detection of DVD+/-R and DVD+/-RW media.
- Large buffer increases system functionality and prevents buffer-under-run error.
- Continuous copying – does not require “cool-down” periods.

TEAC's complete line of DVD/CD Duplicators are stand-alone disc-to-disc DVD and CD duplication systems requiring no PC connection. TEAC tower duplicator series offers the best solution for production level CD and DVD Duplication requirements today. The systems also Verify, and will Copy / Compare discs that are duplicated.

TEAC makes its own DVD-ROM and DVD-RW optical drives for the TEAC line of DVD Duplicators. You do not need to worry about not being able to find a replacement drive if you have to replace any of the drives. Other manufacturers DO NOT make their own optical drives. As drives are generally replaced by new models every 3-6 months, they will create a problem for compatibility of all drives in the duplicator system. Choosing a TEAC Duplicator will SAVE you lots of headache in case any of the drives on your duplicator go bad!

TEAC's line of DVD Duplicators have been specifically designed to meet the growing demand to duplicate small to medium quantities of DVD's by the most cost-effective way.

There is no need to load extra software program and no extra time to set up the TEAC tower units. There is also no need to attach any cables to your PC as the towers completely function as stand-alone units.
